Three "events" to pray and reflect upon this week:

- Week of Prayer For Christian Unity (Jan 18-25)

Theme this year is "Do You Believe" Jn 11:26. "In 2025, the whole Church commemorates the 1,700th anniversary of the first Ecumenical Council of the entire church at that time, called by the Emperor Constantine at Nicaea (presently in the country of Turkey) in the early summer of 325. Aside from important disciplinary agreements, such as a common date for Easter, the Council discussed and debated orthodoxy of doctrine, especially about what Christians believe about the nature of God as Trinity and the two natures, human and divine, of Jesus Christ. The result was an agreed upon Creed, what we today call the Nicene Creed."

- Inauguration of President Trump.

From USCCB President Archbishop Timothy P. Broglio: "Let us pray for President-elect Trump, as well as all leaders in public life, that they may rise to meet the responsibilities entrusted to them as they serve our country and those whom they represent. Let us ask for the intercession of our Blessed Mother, the patroness of our nation, that she guide to uphold the common good of all and promote the dignity of the human person, especially the most vulnerable among us, including the unborn, the poor, the stranger, the elderly and infirm, and migrants."

- Celebration of ML King jr Day

From the USCCB, President Archbishop Broglio "a fitting occasion to recall also his (ML King) words from Letter from a Birmingham Jail where he stated, 'Injustice anywhere is a threat to justice everywhere.'"

"In reflecting on the continuing realities of racial injustice, immigrant families seeking welcome, and economic disparity, these words remind us that we are connected and responsible for each other as we seek to fulfill the dream," Archbishop Broglio added. "As we approach Dr. King's holiday, let us be inspired by this righteous man's work and sacrifice to create a more just society for all of God's children."

Let us pray for the goal of these three events

...peace among all people.

Peace of Christ,

Fr. Steven
